

Technological Awareness Program - Poonthura Colony Students

As part of Community Extension Programme, 'SPARSHAM' initiated an activity for school students in Poonthura community. The programme is intended to provide better learning awareness on Technology for economically and socially backward students. This is essentially for motivating the school kids towards education and provides awareness about the scope of technical education.

