Date of Issue: 01.05.2022

Page No. of 3

Mar Baselios College of Engineering and Technology aims at ensuring the active participation of differently abled persons in every aspect of personal and intellectual development, thereby empowering them in exercising their rights and enabling them to take up their rightful place in society.

1. OBJECTIVES

This policy aims at assisting differently abled students, staff members and visitors to the institution by fostering their inclusion and participation to the fullest degree. The policy lays down the procedures that will be adopted in providing support to persons with special needs and identifying solutions through knowledge exchange with organizations directly involved with empowering differently abled persons. The policy is in line with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016, which states that Government and local authorities shall endeavour to ensure that all educational institutions funded/recognized by them, provide inclusive education and accessible building and campuses.

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to differently abled students and staff members, as well as aged and differently abled visitors to the institute. The term 'differently abled' includes but is not limited to disorders involving visual impairment, hearing impairment, speech impairment and cognitive disorders.
